GLEANINGS FROM THE GLADES

By Paul Rardin

CO-OPERATION: The act of working jointly together, concurrence.

Oftimes I wonder how many people actually know the meaning of the word when they use it so promiscuously.

People from all over the Glades turned out Tuesday night for the benefit football game on Lair field in Pahokee. I haven't found out exactly how much money was cleared for the underprivileged children's milk fund—but it was a nice piece of change. I don't regret that 35 cents I planked down for a ticket. The game was well worth the money and the profit goes for a worthy cause.

I remember in the fall of 1908 when our next door neighbor bought an Edison gramaphone. It was the swellest musical instrument I'd ever seen. As well as I remember the machine itself looked something like a portable sewing machine, curved lid, handle and all. We visited our neighbor rather regularly that winter and listened many times to the full run of records. "Come Be My Rainbow," was one of the favorites as was "Red Wing." Billy Jones and Ernie Hare were a couple of favorite comics and their records were particularly interesting to us youngsters.

For many years now I've had a hankering to own one of those things. Maybe it's because the neighbor would never let me touch his machine. He wouldn't even let me wind it afraid I'd wind it too tight and break the spring. So particular was he that none of us kids were allowed to put the records back in their cylindrical containers. He always did that job himself. The records were valuable and he didn't want any broken.

And now after forty years it begins to look like I'm going to have the pleasure of winding one of the things and changing the record. I'm on a deal with an oldtimer in Atlanta for one of the machines and just as soon as we get together on the price everything will be all right. At present he's holding it as an antique and I maintain that it is just another phonograph out of date and should be considered as such when a price is being set.

This fellow has 1,000 records that go along with the machine. He says the machine "plays just like new." The records according to his description are in tip top shape—"hardly a scratch on them." It all sounds good to me and I'm going to have a lot of fun playing that thing if we complete the deal.

I'm not building myself up for a big letdown about the phonograph. I remember some of the imperfections—as compared to those of today. So, my friends, when I get it if I do I'll be glad to load it into the back end of my car and visit you and let you hear the kind of music that was popular 30 years ago.

My wife has served notice that I'll have to make room in the garage for the machine and 1000 records. Of course, I'll admit that 1,000 records in containers each about the size of a No. 2 tomato can will take up a lot of space in anybody's house.

Builders Inspect State Hiway 26

James McKenzie, assistant superintendent of the Atlantic Dredging and Construction company, arrived at South Bay the first of the week to inspect the South Bay-Okeelanta sector of Road 26 and make minor repairs to the shoulders of the road in order to leave their grade 100 per cent perfect at the close of the 30-day maintenance required by their contract after finishing the road grade. This period ended Monday.

Fred A. McKenzie, Sr., president of the company, and wife and Mrs. James McKenzie of Okeechobee were here Tuesday. Mr. McKenzie said remainder of machinery used on this contract was to be moved at once to Okeechobee where all machinery and equipment would be thoroughly overhauled and repainted. It was estimated that these repairs would occupy approximately two months.

Sugar Cane Harvest Started On Monday For 1939-40 Season

Cane Grinding At Clewiston Mill Started Three Weeks Earlier

It's cane cutting time around Lake Okeechobee. More than 3,000 colored cane cutters started work Monday morning to harvest the 26,000 acres of sugar cane being produced this season by the United States Sugar corporation. This is the ninth year the present company has been operating in this section and the harvest season will run well into the month of April.

This year has been an ideal one for cane growing and with favorable harvesting conditions throughout the remainder of the season, the sugar company will, no doubt, set a record for cane growing and harvesting in the Lake Okeechobee region. The harvest season is starting three weeks ahead of any previous season.

Cane yields per acre and sugar yields per ton of cane is expected to be even larger this season than last year when new records were established of 4.11 tons of sugar per average acre. This expectation is based on the almost perfect growing season for the cane and larger acreages of improved varieties now coming into production.

J. W. Moran, vice-president and general manager of the corporation stated that Florida's production of sugar, with that of Louisiana and the beet sugar areas, is now making available a supply of continental sugar. This supply he said, will have the effect of moderating prices on sugar because of availability at all times even during war periods and points to the logic of unrestricted production of sugar in the continental producing area.

Pahokee "B" Team Wins From Visitors By 25 to 2 Score

Playing together for the first time as a complete unit the Pahokee Blue Devils "B" team defeated Delray Beach Tuesday night 25 to 2 in the annual Lions Benefit game at Lair Field.

Cowen, Pahokee fullback, thrilled the crowd in the third quarter when he intercepted a Delray Beach pass on Pahokee's 35 yard line and ran 65 yards for a touchdown.

Hooks passed to Allen, good for 30 yards, in the same quarter and Cowen passed to Sanders, who ran over the goal for another touchdown.

The two points made by Delray Beach came in the third quarter when Pahokee began fumbling the ball being pushed back to their 10 yard line. Cowen attempted to punt out of the zone but the ball was blocked and recovered back of their goal line.

Tyler and son, Noah Tyler, of Miami, returned Sunday with 9 bass for a total of 42 pounds and a 9 pound snook. Plans are being made by Mr. Tyler to erect a fishing lodge adjacent to the canal at Miami Locks. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wicker, Miami, also reported bringing in three bass weighing 9 pounds recently. They fished from a Lake Harbor camp.

Above is a picture of the huge mill of the United States Sugar corporation located at Clewiston. The mill is the largest of its kind in the country and on Tuesday morning of this week started to grind the 1939-40 crop raised in the Lake Okeechobee farming region. The mill will grind almost 5,000 tons of cane daily during the harvest season which will continue through April.

Price Around Two Dollars On Beans As Season Starts

Quality Fair Growers Say As Movement Gets Under Way

Lake Okeechobee Region beans brought profitable returns to growers this week and carlot movements started toward northern markets. The quality of the beans being shipped this week was fair, according to those who bought and sold them.

Monday morning of this week brought the first completely fair day the Lake Region had experienced in more than two weeks and along with it came smiles on the faces of growers and business men.

Beans during the week have brought from $1.50 per hamper to as much as $2.15, all depending upon the quality of the product. The major portion of the crop to date has been moved on trucks with a small number of carlots finding their way to eastern markets.

Packing houses in the Lake area have had no trouble in securing enough help to grade what beans have been moved. At present there are enough bean graders and packers on hand to handle the entire 1930-40 crop. Growers state that ample labor is on hand to pick the beans.

South Carolina: Snap beans from the fall crop are now moving mostly by truck, with a few cars by rail. Shipments should increase until November 1. Some real early cabbage is now moving by truck but the available volume will be very small until November.

Georgia: This week should very nearly clean up the fall [illegible]

[illegible]

Texas: [illegible] table crops [illegible] the first [illegible] Temperatures [illegible] moisture [illegible] good rains [illegible] all areas except in the section around San Antonio and Wilson-Karnes counties. In spite of the lack of rainfall around San Antonio, this area is supplying a large part of the first vegetables coming into local markets. Snap beans, peppers and spinach are moving in a limited volume to most of the Texas markets.

Funny Money In Glades Section

Bogus ten dollar bills found their way into the Glades section last week when some of the funny money turned up at Uncle Sam's post office in Pahokee, the Bank of Pahokee and the Florida East Coast railway office in Canal Point. Two bills were caught by alert clerks in the post office and five trickled into the bank in deposits. One made its appearance at the Canal Point railway depot.

Mrs. S. E. Gammage, Pahokee post office clerk detected some of the funny money when she was counting a number of bills for deposit. Postmaster Larrimore immediately notified postal officials in Jacksonville giving serial numbers and other identification marks. The bills were reported as "crude" reproductions by the federal authorities.

IF YOU DRIVE A CAR AND EARN A LIVING IN THE LAKE REGION WE'D ADVISE YOU TO BUY AN AUTOMOBILE DRIVER'S LICENSE

Have you bought your driver's license yet? If you haven't we'd advise you to do so immediately. In some sections of the state officials are beginning to crack down on those who have been diligent in this matter. The same action is to be expected in this section of the state before long.

We offer a word of advice to transients who are employed in the section and plan to remain throughout the season. To these folks we suggest that they buy a license before "the man" gets you. He may let you off light the first time and again he may not. Why take chances?

ANOTHER BUSY SEASON IS HERE AND SCHOOL CHILDREN MUST BE PROTECTED FROM RECKLESS DRIVERS

Another busy season is at hand and school children must be protected from motorists who have no consideration for the other fellow. School buses plying their routes around Lake Okeechobee—carrying precious lives—must be given every consideration possible by those who drive cars in order that no student lose his life.

With the many school buses carrying pupils to a centralized high school it is humanly impossible for one partolman to give the needed attention to this matter. Right now we have only one patrolman working the Lake Okeechobee Region and he can't do an efficient job because, after all, he can be in only one place at a time.

Thousands of colored bean pickers are coming into the Glades area and the jalopies they drive aren't safe to be on the highways—some with one light — some with no brakes—and some of the drivers without mentality enough to operate a motor car. It is from these and a few local reckless drivers that we must protect our children. On the south shore of the Lake there is practically no road patrol—the one man working necessarily spending the major portion of his time on this end.

Something should be done about the matter before it is too late. Some arrangements should be worked out by those officials in charge to guard against the loss of a single life.

WHY DOESN'T J. MARK WILCOX RUN FOR THE SENATE IF SENATOR ANDREWS ACCEPTS APPOINTMENT TO THE FEDERAL BENCH?

Throughout the Lake Okeechobee Region in Palm Beach county friends of J. Mark Wilcox are wondering why he doesn't plan to run for the United States senate in case Senator Charles O. Andrews is appointed to the federal judgeship vacated by Judge Akerman. These same friends don't believe Mark will seek the job if Senator Andrews offers for reelection but they are anxious that the former congressman toss his hat into the ring if Senator Andrews retires from the senate.

By custom the seat now occupied by Senator Andrews belongs to South Florida. Of course, should the senator resign now, there would be a recess appointment by Governor Cone. Some believe that the governor will resign in favor of Turner Butler, president of the state senate, and take a senatorial appointment to round out an outstanding political career. These same folks believe, however, that Governor Cone will refuse to make a state-wide campaign for a full term of six years.

That Mark Wilcox is ably fitted to serve the state of Florida as United States senator is an established fact. His three terms in congress gave him an insight to inner workings of federal government and his years of service on the Military Affairs committee have peculiarly fitted him to deal with the international situation which now is of utmost importance to the welfare of our country.

The Sumter County Fair Association Inc., operating under the auspices of the Garner-Grant Post No. 101 of the American Legion at Bushnell, will present an Iron Lung to the Harry-Anna Home for Crippled Children on Armistice night, November 11.

People of England consume only half a pint of milk a day while Americans drink four times as much.

Florida grapefruit is now bringing from $3.50 to $4.00 per box. Indications are that prices will hold and growers are urged to hold their fruit for a fair price. Curtailment of green fruit shipments is due to regulations of the Florida Citrus Commission, and has materially helped to maintain better prices.

Living costs in Japan are soaring.

File Injunction To Keep Hospital from Closing Its Doors

Mrs. Wooten, Owner Of Building, Wants Higher Rent

A petition was filed Monday for an injunction to prevent the removal of the Everglades Memorial Hospital, Inc., from the present building for alleged non-payment of rent.

An offer has been made by the officers to pay what back rent is due and to pay rent promptly in the future. Mrs. Estelle Wooten, joined by her husband, E. L. Wooten, filed the county court case and are defendants in the injunction suit.

Hospital officials pointed out that there is a great need for a hospital in this area, especially for treatment of persons who are injured in traffic accidents in this area, and "patients in the hospital now could not be moved without great danger to their health."

The hospital alleges Mrs. Wooten says $355 in past rent is due, while the hospital claims an offset of $152.85, and expenditures of only $1,500 for improvements were to be made and that about $5,000 has been put in the property covered by a five year lease, dated October 1, 1937. Also, according to the hospital, it has offered Mrs. Wooten payment in full which she refused to accept.

IS HE HUMAN?

Haven't you heard folks say, "Human nature never changes" and then turn right around and talk about how much sorrier our youth is now than in the days before the automobile? But whatever your own personal opinion regarding the issue of human nature you must admit it is a sad state of affairs that we haven't enough confidence left in our fellow men that we are surprised when a citizen makes an outstanding demonstration of kindness and applies the Golden Rule in a business deal. The story goes about the man who owns a 37 1-2 mile stretch of railroad that is desired by the city of New York. He has shocked officials by offering to sell his road to the city for what it cost him. The deal is for six hundred thousand, and not five to twenty million dollars which the city officials expected him to ask. This generosity is almost unequaled and has left many a man speechless with shock. It is a compliment to human nature that a man who displays any unexpected generosity and no inclination to bleed his fellows, is looked upon as unusual and outstanding? It may be true that the case is exceptional, but isn't it rather pathetic that we have allowed ourselves to arrive at a place where this case is out-of-the-way? None of us would have blamed the owned of the railroad for making a profit, we would have done likewise. But did we expect him to hold up the city for all he could get out of it? It isn't much of a compliment to human nature.

GOOD NEIGHBOR WEEK?

We take it for granted that every one appreciates his neighbor, but we so often neglect to let him know it until we need his help. All during the year you pick up news about the good deeds of good neighbors. We know of many deeds of kindness about us, and are aware of the many acts of neighborliness shown. There are weeks to honor pineapple, potatoes, candy, and then comes days to honor Mother, Father, Sweetheart. Why not put aside some time when you pay due respect and tribute to your good neighbors?

A GOOD IDEA

There are none of the older generation who do not remember those days during the World War when the situation called for using pinto beans instead of navy, doing without sugar, folding bandages, knitting socks, making patriotic speeches and buying Liberty Bonds. Sometimes we must be reminded of those days, however. In Ohio there is a growing movement for refreshing the memory. Through the Council of Churches cities are having "Lest We Forget" luncheons where beans and wartime bread is served to groups of citizens. This is followed by intelligent discussion of problems today affecting world peace. Material necessary for such a discussion is furnished. This is an effective means of furthering peace. A movement such as this will not die, surely, when it is in the hearts of so many of that peace might reign. Good for Ohio and her "Lest We Forget" luncheons.

LIVE TO 100

Records show that more old people live in the country. This indicates the value of fresh air, light and space in which to turn around. The idea that you may live longer because someone else lived long in your family, may be true. You read where certain centenarians have been orphans, been ill during youth, careless in eating, have smoked and even drank. But usually those habits and conditions are altered after the age of forty. Animals live longer than their usual lifetime if fed extra rations of lime and all the vitamins. Milk supplies our lime, greens our vitamins and a word to the wise. It is found that people who live to this ripe age of 100 years have a balanced nervous system. This means to keep your blood pressure down and take things as they come. After all, do you want to live to be 100? Many a fellow says no for there are too many wrinkles that accompany it.

* * * * * * * * * * *

POPULAR ISN'T ENOUGH

Overheard someone say, the other day, "He is surely popular and has loads of friends". It caused us to wonder if just because you are popular you can count on having a host of friends? There are many people who strive for nothing more than to be the life of the party, to have other folks remark that they are the most popular of the crowd. Often enough the fellow who spends money recklessly becomes popular in a way. He may gather people around him who will admire him for awhile and no doubt enjoy his company for awhile. But are these people counted as real friends? To make friends is not to make a large splurge socially and financially, to have a surface personality that is fleeting in its sincerity. The man's true friends and worth while ones are those he makes by being himself-honest and sincere. He makes friends who helps others because he enjoys doing it and not because it will make him popular. He makes sacrifices for friends and likes doing it. He is natural and folks like him for himself alone. The man who can call on friends for help and that help is forthcoming, is to be envied by the man who is merely termed as popular.

Pompano Market Will Open Nov. 16

POMPANO, Nov 2. Date of the formal opening of the Pompano state farmers market, largest under one roof in the world, has been advanced to November 16, it was announced Tuesday. The change from November 15 was made in order to have present officials of the National Marketing Association, who will inspect the market on a swing through Florida in their annual convention.

Drawings for allotment of space in the new market on the basis of applications scaled down by the committee Monday night went off without incident Tuesday. Only one major grower of the area, one who operates his own packing plant and platform and ships in carload lots, is not represented in the market, it was stated by J. J. Hawkins, chairman.

The spaces, 16 by 12 feet, rent at $40 per year, with half payment due with application and the remainder payable December 15 and January 15. All spaces on the market have been sold to buyers and shippers.

Thieves Rampant In Glades Area

On Tuesday night of this week thieves broke into the grocery store operated north of Canal Point by D. T. Connell and carried away cigarettes and a small amount of change.

On Wednesday night someone entered the garage of the Maxwell brothers in Pahokee and took $25 in cash and other loot. Entrance to the Maxwell place was gained by breaking in through a transom. The thief broke the lock on the desk drawer but found nothing there he wanted. He broke open the cigarette machines and relieved them of their cash.

BREAKS ARM

Basil Todd, small son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Todd of Pahokee, broke his left arm Wednesday, while jumping a fence on the school ground. He is able to be back in school.
